BOMBAY COURIER
EXTRAORDINARY.

TUESDAY, APRIL 22ND 1823.

THE COURIER
EXTRAORDINARY.

TUESDAY, APRIL 22D 1823.

THE following Extracts of interesting Intelligence taken from the English papers and Foreign Journals of November and December 1822, brought by the way of Bussorah, will no doubt be acceptable

Accounts of the death of the Bishop of Calcutta reached England on the 29th of November.

Major Generals, W. Grant Keir, Lionel Smith, Theophilus Pritzler, and James Campbell, were nominated Knights Commander of the Bath on the 3d of December.

The decision, as to the Deckan prize money, was postponed in the middle of November, for a period of one month.

---

Letitia Buonaparte, mother of Napoleon died in October at Rome; she left 37 thousand pounds to each of her Children; a splendid palace to Cardinal Fesch; and the bulk of her remaining property to her grand son the ex-King of Rome.

The King of Sweden has permitted an open trade with South America.

The Prince Royal has lately been affianced with a German Princess.

After a labour of twenty years and an expenditure of £ 900,000 the Caledonian Canal was opened on the 23d October; the Loch-ness steam yacht and two smacks passing through it.

The distresses of the poor in Ireland still remained in a horrible degree; subscriptions for their relief had been opened for the British absentees on the Continent. The disturbances expected in Dublin on the 5th November had been happily prevented by the prudent and timely interference of the Magistracy.

A plan established as a basis at the King of Spain was to be restored in all his rights. The Duke of Wellington was the only foreign Plenipotentiary admitted to this early conference.

A Bengal East Indiaman reached March 1st September.

A Committee of Merchants and Traders in London had prayed for an addition to the force there, to protect them against the numerous pirates of Cuba.

The Island of Hayti had been very active in the spirit of rebellion throughout America and the United States.

On the 4th September the Turkish fleet left Tenedos by Chourschid Pacha, in possession of Souli, the inhabitants. The Souliotes lands of land in Cephalonia have been granted to them. Prevesa for the Souliotes to their new

In the House of Commons canvas for the the remaining Mr. Scarlett, Mr.

Peter at Venice by lightning on intended to will be arministers assem-

Piedmont nothing has that on 25th Allied Powers

had signed a notification addressed to the Spanish Government, it is also added that England had acceded to this through her ministers.

The fleet of the Pacha of Egypt had separated from the Imperial Turkish fleet on it's returning into the Dardanelles before the Greeks. The Turks had lost four or five vessels, but no general engagement had taken place. The Greeks are Masters of the Archipelago.

Commissioners have been sent to Vienna to treat for the payment of the debt due to us by Austria.

Sweden has adopted measures to discharge the debt of Denmark.

Hunt on his liberation from Jail was escorted into London by a large concourse of people on the 11th November.

Berthollet the Chemist, died in Paris 6th November.

The new Imperial Internuncio Baron Attenfels reached Constantinople 3d October.

Quesada the Royalist General of Spain was totally defeated by Espenosa at Tosareos 27th October.

The Pope is so ill that his dissolution is hourly expected.

COURIER 15TH NOVEMBER.

His Majesty had suffered lately from a severe depression of spirits which ended in the gout, of which he had sustained a serious attack but was considerably recovered.

Accounts from New York of 18th October, state that a force had been dispatched to destroy the pirates of the island of Cuba.

On the 22d October a meeting was called at Washington to propose a subscription for the relief of the Greeks. The question was deferred.

On the 15th November, Sir J. McIntosh was elected Lord Rector of the University of Glasgow for the ensuing year.

The French are fortifying and equipping their Frontier towards Spain.

The Duke of Wellington had perfectly recovered of some severe pains in his head occasioned by the improper use of lunar caustic to the interior of the ear.

The Congress proceeds and is expected to close by the end of November or the beginning of December when its public declarations will be made. Hitherto all is said to be cordiality and peace The settlement with regard to Turkey is on the point of taking place and that of Spain will not present many articles. Naples it was supposed would be occupied.

COURIER 22ND. NOVEMBER.

News from Frankfort 17th November, state that the Greeks have agreed to an armistice for six months with Chourschid Pacha on his evacuating Thessaly and all the Turkish Garrisons in the Morea, and the immediate surrender of Arta and Prevesa. He is returning towards Macedonia.

TRIESTE NOV. 5.

Canca the Capital of Candea has capitulated to the Greeks; this news has been confirmed at Smyrna.

COURIER 25TH NOVEMBER.

The Spaniards charge the French with kindling a Civil war in Catalonia and Navarre and are making large warlike preparations, the French are no less active; and the spirit on both sides appears sufficiently hostile.

Colocotroni is likely to succeed to the chief power over the Greeks.

VERONA NOVEMBER 13TH.

The Greek Deputies are arrived at Ala between Reveredo and Verona and it is understood they will be permitted to visit Verona as soon as the minister of state Count Capo d'Istreda arrives.

France is to be aided by an army in case of necessity against the Spaniards and she is allowed to interfere with arms against that country. This appears to have been determined at Congress. England holds aloof.

The Constitutionalists under Mina are gaining daily advantages.

A treaty it is supposed would immediately take place between Portugal and Spain, but that the former requires the cession of Olivenza.

One of the Spanish Princes is said to have taken part with the Constitutionalists, for which the Government law officers have endeavoured to impeach him.

COURIER 2D DECEMBER.

France is accused in the Cortes of assisting the factions Spaniards & furnishing them with clothes & warlike stores. It is declared if she causes fresh uneasiness, she shall have cause to repent it. The King's Palace is still liable to domiciliary visits.

The Spanish Royalist army under Baron D' Eroles is said to be confined to the fort of Urgel.

The French are still active in their warlike preparations.

The Russian people still pant for a Turkish war.

COURIER 3D DECEMBRR.

The Regency of Spain is arrived at Llivia and Spanish refugees daily reach the French frontiers.

Baron D' Eroles has divided his army into bands of 200 on 300 men each to act as Guerillas.

ST. GUADENS 23D NOVEMBER.

Madame d'Eroles and suite have entered the Freuch territory. Baron d'Eroles and remains of his army had reached the French advanced post.

PARIS, NOVEMBER 30TH.

An affair is said to have taken place between the Soldiers of the Army of the Faith and the 6th Regiment Light Infantry, in consequence of the former having refused after several summonses, on the part of the Colonel of the Regiment, to deliver their arms. Several were wounded on this occasion, they were subsequently received into the French territory & their prisoners from the constitutionalists released.

A deputation from Urgel waited on Mina imploring pardon and assuring him of their devotion to the Constitutional cause.

Congress has determined that the continental powers shall leave to France the end and termination of the affairs of Spain; with the intention of concurring with all their force in such plan of execution as France shall be in a situation to adopt.

A privy Council was held at Paris immediately after the receipt of this intelligence, and it is reported that the French army of observation had actually crossed the Pyrennees.

Mr. Bankes is chosen member for Cambridge University.

Khalid Effendi the favorite of the Sooltan has been beheaded at Komoh.

Lord Strangford returned to Constantinople on the 16th January and to him, after considerable concessions on the part of Russia at Congress, is entrusted the arrangement of the difference between Russia and Turkey. Every hope is entertained of a pacific result.

Lord Wellington had left Verona.

---

The Morning Chronicle of the ber, announces that M. de (of the Count) having Lowe on Paddington of that month, ap his shoulders; and applied at Bow Street for a Plaster, on t following day.

Considerable depression in the funds had taken place in consequence of the expected War between France and Spain, and there were upwards of 100 defaulters on the last settling day at the stock exchange.

---

The Theodosia Capt. Kidson from Liverpool 23d October, arrived last night, but of course brings no news. Passengers, Rev. John Lawrie, Junior Minister of the Scotch Church and Mrs. Lawrie.

Arrived also the Susannah Captain Nerae, from Bourdeaux, the 1st October.

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra
on 08 April, 2017

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra
on 08 April, 2017